

Sharing Our Building

For many years yoga classes have found Fellowship Hall, with morning sun shining through the stained-glass windows, a welcoming place to meet. This year Betsy Naselli has led popular classes there on Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

Betse Murphy, for the second year, has taught Tai Chi classes to an enthusiastic group, in Fellowship Hall, on Monday afternoons.

In November of 2024, Laurie Petersen suggested a ukulele group. At least 14 individuals explored the invitation. A core of nine lasted throughout 2025. The group led sing-a-longs at the Arts Center of Northern New York for the opening of their show, Art and Music, and as part of the Community Chorus Christmas Concert. They played preludes and postludes at two of our worship services.

This year's intrepid Tower Chimers included Kris Dimmick, Hope Edwards, Betsy Regan, Lizz and Tim Smith, Ray Spahn Dick and Patti Stephens and Carmen Zumbach.
