

Worship and Music

Jane Wilcox, Worship and Music Chair

To provide for our Sunday and special times worship takes a whole congregation.

We give thanks for:

Summer's leadership in planning each service.

Weekly liturgists.

Choir and Dick Stephens' leadership.

Eileen Edwards' organ and piano skill.

The special children's time. This year Hanna Kenney and Brenda Towner joined Summer in this ministry.

Eileen, Patti, Dick and Summer preparing our bulletin.

Sandy Cowell, our Holy Communion steward, who prepares the elements the first Sunday of each month, plus Good Friday and Easter and the Presbyter of Northern New York meeting in our church on May 13th.

People who loaned international fabrics for the World Communion Sunday table.

Advent, Christmas Eve and Good Friday readers.

Jim Wilson, who vacuums the sanctuary and Fellowship Hall.

People who share their garden flowers and those who give Christmas and Easter memorial flowers.

Linya Bell, Laurie Petersen, Dick Stephens, and Patti Stephens, and the choir for filling our pulpit when Summer was away.

The new Christmas tree and those who hung the greens and banners for the Advent and Christmas season.

Patti Stephens for hymns from the bell tower before each service.

The newly formed ukelele group, who have added joy to some of our services.

Those who provide food for coffee hour as we continue our time of fellowship.
